for Building Improvement of Chung Tai Zen Center of Sunnyvale

To bring the Buddha's compassion and wisdom to Silicon Valley, Grand Master Wei Chueh, founding Abbot of Chung Tai Chan Monastery and over 90 Zen Centers in Taiwan and overseas, established Chung Tai Zen Center of Sunnyvale in March 2004. During 17 years, the Zen Center has offered free classes in meditation and the teachings of Buddhism in English and Chinese. In the Zen Center's tranquil environment, people learn the ageless wisdom of Buddhism, discover the inner joy of meditation, and uncover the "Buddha Nature" within all of us.

In response to the needs of renovation, a tenant improvement project was started in November 2021 and is expected to finish in May, 2022.

The sutras state that benefactors who help to construct a monastery gain immeasurable merits and blessings. Those benefactors will receive good karma, and enjoy wealth and good health in life after life. Out of the benefactors' respect, compassion and generosity, they will be reborn in good places, enjoy the True Teaching, and eventually attain enlightenment.

We sincerely invite you, your relatives, and your friends to support and participate in this building improvement project of Chung Tai Zen Center of Sunnyvale through making financial contributions.
